AMUSEMENTS.

AMERICAN ACADEMY OF MUSIC. - Martha wa delightfully rendered last evening by the Richings Opera Troupe before a large and fashionable audience. Mrs. Seguin as "Nancy" and Mr. Campbell as "Plankiv' fairly divided the honors of the evening with Miss Caroline Richings. To-night Amber's romantic opera of Crown Diamonds will be presented, with the new dresses, and all of the vocal brilliants. This opera was honored with an immense audience on Friday night, and is now one of the most popular in the reperfoire of the Richings Troupe. Those who heard the French company in the work will be agreeably surprised at the excellence of Miss Bichings, Mrs. Seguin, and Messrs. Castle, Peakes, and Campbell in this opers. To-morrow (Weonesday) the Doctor of Alcantara will be pre-ented. On Friday, Maritana for Mr. Campbeli's benefit.

"MARIE ANTOINETTE." - Mrs. Bowers made quite a hit last night in her new play. The scenery was really grand, and the effects were unusually fine. Mrs. Bowers' playing of the part of "Marie" was admirable, and fully equal to Ristori—except in artistic finish. We were pleased to see the house crowded, an unusual thing for a "first night." Marie Antoinelle may be accompanied a prilliant species. be pronounced a brilliant success, and we have no doubt it will have a long and profitable run at the Chesnut. The management deserve credit for the manner in which the piece has been placed upon the stage. The present dramatization is not so claborate as that of Glacometti, but has all of the effects and startling situations, and is arranged with more rational solidity.

Mn. EDWIS FORREST appears in Damm and Pythias this evening, at the Walnut, supported by Miss Little, Mr. C. Barton Hill, and all of the company favorities. To morrow (Wednesday), Metamora.

"Sunr," at the Arch, seems to increase in popularity. It is indeed a very pleasant comedy, and the acting of Mrs. John Drew and her company is very line. Friday, benefit of Mrs. Drew. saturday afternoon, in answer to universal demand, first Surf Matince.

WE ARE pleased to announce that the celebrated Bunyan Tableaux are to remain for a few nights more at National Hall, in Market street, below Thirteenth. No one should miss this beautiful moral and instructive exhibition.

CONCERT HALL.-The success of the great Macallister and lady last night was complete. The audience appeared continuity delighted, and one hundred lucky persons bore away hand-come gifts. An attractive programme again this evening.

Mann Hasslen's Concent yesterday after-noon was a complete triumph. About three thousand persons crowded into Concert Hall, and several hundred holding tickets were unable to obtain admission. All such persons are informed that their tickets will be received at the second concert next Monday alternoon. Mr. Hassler was astonished at the popularity of his plen among the music-loving citizens of Phila-delphia. He promises to give a programme, continually increasing in attractiveness, throughout the season.

Mr. Mark Hassler has under consideration numerous requests from friends and patrons, for establishing a series of Sunday evening sacred concerts.

MRS. SIDDONS AS 'LADY MACRETH."—To Miss Edgeworth Mrs. Siddons relates an incident in her career which it was worth going a long way to hear from her own lips:—'She gave us the history of her first acting of 'Lady Macbeth,' and of her resolving, in the sleep scene, to lay down the candlestick, contrary to the precedent of Mrs. Pritchard and all the traditions, before she began to wash her hands, and say 'Out vile seet,' of the say, 'Out, vile spot!' Sheridan knocked vio-lently at her door during the five minutes she had desired to have entirely to herself to com-pose her spirits before the play began. He burst in, and prophesied that she would rain herself lorever it she persysted in this results. herself forever it she persevered in this resolu-tion to lay down the candlestick. She persisted, however, in her determination, succeeded, was applicated, and Sheridan begged her pardon. She described well the awe she felt, and the power of the excitement given to her by the sight of Burke, Fox, Sheridan, and Sir Joshua Reynolds in the plt."—Edinburgh Review.

-Mr. Jefferson has been making a sensation at Chicago in his inimitable personation of "Rip Van Winkle," The critic of the Chicago Repub-tican says:—"We have seen Ristori as 'Eliza-beth,' Booth as 'Hamlet,' Charles Kean as 'Louis XI, Forrest as 'Richelieu,' Lucille Western as 'Leah,' and John E. Owens as 'Solon Shingle, yet we have never seen so perfect an absorption of the identity of the actor into the character assumed as we did last evening. Mr. Jefferson was not only excellent, but perfect; and to our mind stands to-day the greatest actor in the

-The Chicago Tribune alludes to the prominence of American lyric artists abroad. It says: "The best concert singer in Europe, Carlotia Patti, is of American birth. The best light soprano singer in Europe, who only last Saturday made her triumphant debut in London, Clara Louise Kellogr, is an American. The best contraits singer in Europe, Morensi, is an American, and if they are not satisfied with her, we can send a still better one in the person of Adelaide Phillips."

—The prima downs at the Vienna opera house is Mad'lie Dustmann, who is said to be an ac-complished singer and a conscientious actress, and is possessed of a useful soprano voice of remarkable purity. The great trouble with her is her excessive stoutness, which has caused the postponement of Gounod's Romeo and Juliet till next year, as the part of "Juliet" could not well be confided to a lady of motherly aspect and of over one hundred and eighty pounds

-Vienna, which calls itself the musical capital of Europe, has not as yet a respectable opera house. A new and fine building is now going up, however, which is to be opened next year. Its exterior is said to be grand and improved the said to be grand By a singular oversight no arrange ments for ventilation were made until the walls were up and the roof on. This has been remedied at considerable expense.

- Galignani complains that "Madame Benoitou," the "Grand Duchess," the "Biche du Bols," and "Les Petits Creves" possess such attractions for the strangers in Paris that the residents are deprived of their usual variety of amusements.

-Mr. J. S. Clarke does not seem to have been very successful in his first London appearance, as "De Boots" in A Widow Hunt. The Pail Mait Gazette, which criticizes him rather severely, admits, however, that it is hardly fair to judge him by his performance of one character.

-Count Achille Pepoll, husband of Mme. Alboni, the singer, lately died at the asylum of Dr. Blanche, to which he was removed about -The actor Couder, who "created" the part of "General Boum" in the Grande Duckesse de Ge roisiein," has just died at Wiesbaden, of Inflammation of the lungs.

Bull Against Bear-A Scene in Omaha, A crowd of about four hundred men, women, and children repaired to the fair grounds in Omalia one afternoon to seen a fight between the grizzly bear and Mexican bull, which had been extensively advertised. The two animals were secured to the separate ends of a chain, and this was secured in the middle by a long rope to a strong stake driven firmly into the ground. At about 3 o'clock the bear was let out of his cage. The moment the bull saw bruin he made fiercely for him, knocked him down, and trampled him badly. Three or four bouts of this kind occurred, each time the bull having the advantage, until at length he thrust one of his horns into the bear's mouth. This was too much, and by a powerful effort the bear broke his chain and tried to escape, making directly to the specators, who had formed a ring around the arena. There was immediately a terrible confusion. Women screamed, children cried, men haliced, and made the most hasty preparations to get out of the way. The hubbub added to the fright of the bear, so that he could only rear upon his bams and paw about, until his keeper, a Mexican, caught him with a lasso, and got him back into his cage. The Mexican then offered to ride the bear for a purse of fifty dollars, or he would fight the bull with a knife for one hundred dollars. Nobody seemed inclined to invest, and the exhibition closed.

A Parallel to the Howland Will Case. A correspondent writes to the Pall Mall Gazette:- "Fome years ago a gentleman was sued by one of his friends before the civil court in Rome on a promissory note. The defendant pleaded that the signature was a forgery. The judge desired one of the attendants to sammon Toto, a well-known scribe, who earned his live lihood by writing letters for peasants and making out petitions for alms asked by some of his neighbors from the judge and other wealthy persons. Toto was desired to turn expert, and help the judge to a certain the truth of the de fendant's plea. The plaintiff had brought with him an unquestionable signature of the de-fendant's attached to a letter, and the case was adjourned until Toto could make his report next morning. Without any hesitation he said:-"If the court will lay the promissory note upon the letter, it will be found that the two signatures cover, point for point, the same space, and as it is impossible for any man who writes freely to make two signatures so perfectly identical, am sure that the promissory note was not signed by the defendant, but that his signature was traced from his letter.' The Judge at once de-cided in favor of the defendant."

GRAND POPULAR MOVEMENT TO ERROT THE GETTYSBURG ASYLUM

FOB INVALID SOLDIERS. UNDER A SPECIAL

Charter from the State of Pennsylvania, PASSED MARCH 6, 1867.

PASSED MARCH 6, 1887.

AN APPEAL TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE. The object of this Association is to provide, by public exertion, a Navional home for our disabled soliers, to erect an asylum for those who, in their pasticulam, have served their count y at the expense of their bealth and happiness; who in the baltile for the nation's life were maimed, and are now incapable of working for their own maintenance. France has ber Hotel des Invalides, where rest the ashes of the great Napoleon: Ergland, her Greenwich and Chelsea Hospitals, the former being one of the finear architectural strictures ever deviced to charity. Russila, Prussila, and in fact nearly all European countries have magnificent retreats for the unfortunate soldiers. Monarchies provide for the alleviation of the suffering caused by war, but free, prosperous Republican America has no place for her crippled and sick soldiers but the country poor-house or the sidewalks of her crowded cities. These noble patriots left happy homes to save our common country in the hour of her deep distress. We piedged to them our lashing gratitude, and now those who are dependent look to us in their utter need to redoem those pledges. They have performed their part. We eploy the result of their sacrificis. We must not be recreant to our obligations. Let us each devote but a single dollar to this purpose, and the Gestaysburg Asylum will afford the soldiers a home, and our country will be honored by the noble institution.

THE LAND HAS EREN PURCHASED
By this Association, and Ten Thousand Dollars have already been paid towards the preservation of the baltle-ground—about thirty sores (adjoining the site of Greeral Meade's Headquarters) have been set apart for the uses of the Asylum.
